From elderly people...

to young ones.

The day is long for those who don't do anything.

Wisdom

Is everthing clear? – for a smile we need...

serenity on the sky and on the face

Only 7 face muscles for a smile but 43 for unkind face!

Every day is a present. Open it and enjoy it!

To receive, to give...

Strange, how empty the world seems when a man dies.

Together we can do it.

Are you lost...?

We have made it!

We are very happy.

Uaau, we did it...

Really..?

Learn, admire, respect

If you tell me, I will forget
If you show me, I will remember it.

We should remember this...

Because of them...

It is worth while to be persistent.

to make efforts
