

ALPARC is the Network of all protected areas within the Alpine Convention area, from France to Slovenia.

Its members take part to the actions referring to their needs and interests. Actually, all in all more than 1000 large alpine protected areas are listed. They cover about 28% of the Alpine space (Alpine Convention area), a part of them with their own administration. About half of these institutions are yet member of the ALPARC association.

This network was created more than 25 years ago in the aim to realise common projects, to initiate exchanges of technics, to evaluate the efficiency of management methods and to organise meetings and professional events about different topics in the spectrum from fauna monitoring to climate change.

The aim of the Alparc association is to promote the exchange of expertise, techniques and methods among the managers of Alpine protected areas. The association initializes and facilitates realizing common projects among the Alpine protected area and performs their international coordination conforming to the Alpine Convention.

The coordination unit manages the implementation of joint European projects involving protected areas, organises conferences, symposiums, workshops, and meetings and produces publications and other communication products and tools.

Every year it also arranges the meetings of the ALPARC Board, Council and General Assembly. For this, it has a permanent team of multilingual people and also responsables for contractual particular projects.

The headquarter of ALPARC is in Chambéry (Savoy / F).

www.alparc.org

ALPARC recruits a Communication and Event Manger

for its office in Chambéry (France)

I. Job description

The ALPARC team is responsible for managing and coordinating international activities among the Alpine protected areas. It also coordinates or contributes to various major projects within the Alpine Convention and the alpine macroregional strategy such as the setting up of a transalpine ecological network or measures to combat climate change. It develops international projects notably within the framework of European programmes, which aim to promote a sustainable development of Alpine areas and notably in the territories of the protected areas. It carries out communication activities throughout the Alpine protected areas and is heavily involved in environment education projects.

The position will notably be devoted to communication and event management and linked administration tasks.

The communication and event manager will be work closely with the directory and project leaders in:

(The following list is neither exhaustive nor in order of priority)

1. Support in the organisation of ALPARC events and workshops

These tasks include the preparation and organisation of workshops and events.

2. Apply the ALPARC communication strategy

These tasks are concerning a contribution to ALPARC strategy of communication, coordination or elaboration of texts and graphics (flyers, clips) and the promotion of ALPARC's activities and organisation. Participation on social media activities.

3. Data base management and development

Actualisation and development of the ALPARC Data base (File Maker).

4. Development and actualisation of the Internet site of ALPARC

The communication manager is responsible for the development of the ALPARC homepage and regularly actualisation and structuring its contents.

5. Assistance within other working fields of ALPARC

Participation in communication and desk research aspects of current EU projects.

II. Required profile

The manager should hold a higher education diploma at Baccaureate level and a university degree (Master) in a subject related to the tasks concerned. Technical knowledge of the management of data base (File Maker), Internet site managing, and office skills are added assets.

At least 5 years of professional experience in a similar job is required. Practical experience in the field of international relations or cooperation at an international level is a plus.

The communication and event manager must be a native speaker of one of the four official languages of the Alpine Convention (French, Italian, German, and Slovene) and if possible, have a good command of one other Alpine language. In addition, a very good knowledge of written and spoken English is crucial. ALPARC reserves the right to verify language skills by oral or written tests during the hearing.

The communication and project manager must also be able to work in a team in an international context, be comfortable with IT tools and be able to work independently; have good communication skills and a highly meticulous approach to the organisation of their work and to the carrying out of their various, often simultaneous tasks. Travel within the Alps and beyond may be required and should be expected as part of the job assignment.

The candidate must hold a current driving licence.

III. Job conditions

The contract is for a limited 12-month period (CDD) and can be prolonged if the number of projects is stable. Recruitment will be made for a weekly job according to current legal regulations. The place of work is Chambéry/France. Travel in countries of the Alpine Convention or other countries.

Duration of the job contract: 12 months from 1st of February 2021; prolongation wished.

French Employment Law and the Activities Collective Agreement govern the contractual relations between ALPARC and its employees in its Chambéry office.

Please submit your application in French and in English:

- CV in European Europass format together with:
- Europass Language Passport (<http://europass.cedefop.eu.int>),
- Covering letter in French of no more than one page,
- copies of diplomas or proof of professional experience,

by electronic mail only, before:

15th of January 2021 / 2 PM

to ALPARC at the following address: info@alparc.org and to recrutement@alparc.org

A short-list will be drawn up based on the written applications.

Interviews will be held in Chambéry on the 25th of January 2021.
